Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 21—Relative to the University of California.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

ACR 21, as amended, Portantino. University of California: academic partnerships.

Existing law establishes the University of California, under the administration of the Regents of the University of California, as one of the segments of public postsecondary education in this state. The regents operate campuses of the University of California at Berkeley, Davis,

Irvine, Los Angeles, Merced, Riverside, San Diego, San Francisco, Santa Barbara, and Santa Cruz.

This measure would strongly urge the regents to establish a student exchange program, or another form of academic partnership, between one or more campuses of the University of California and one or more of the institutions that are classified as Historically Black Colleges and Universities.

Fiscal committee: yes.

1 WHEREAS, The campuses of the University of California are 2 justly regarded as comprising the premier public institution of 3 higher education in the world; and

4 WHEREAS, Public and private institutions of higher education
5 throughout the world are cognizant of the prestige of the University
6 of California, and may wish to participate in student exchange
7 programs, and other forms of academic partnership, with the 8 University of California; and

9 WHEREAS, Through academic partnerships, students of the 10 various campuses of the University of California may greatly 11 benefit from opportunities to study at other institutions, and to 12 have fellowship with students from these other institutions who 13 are able to visit, or take coursework at, the University of California; 14 and

15 WHEREAS, Among the many distinguished institutions of 16 higher education that would have an interest in student exchange
17 programs, or other forms of academic partnership, are the 103
18 institutions classified, under the federal Higher Education Act of 19 1964, as Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs),
20 and located in 21 states and the District of Columbia; and

21 WHEREAS, The charter of Howard University, an HBCU
22 located in Washington, D.C., was enacted by Congress and 23 approved by President Andrew Johnson in 1867, and the numerous 24 distinguished alumni of Howard include the late U.S. Supreme 25 Court Justice Thurgood Marshall and Nobel laureate Toni
26 Morrison, and famous members of Howard's faculty include Dr.
27 Charles Drew and another Nobel laureate, Ralph Bunche, who,
28 coincidentally, is an alumnus of UCLA; and

29 WHEREAS, Hampton University, an HBCU located in 30 Hampton, Virginia, was founded in 1868, and is the alma mater
31 of the renowned educator, Booker T. Washington, who later

1 became the founder of another distinguished HBCU--Tuskegee
2 University, which is located in Tuskegee, Alabama; and

3 WHEREAS, Fisk University, an HBCU located in Nashville,
4 Tennessee, was founded in 1866, includes W.E.B. DuBois among 5 its many famous alumni, and is internationally renowned for its 6 music program--specifically for its legendary vocal ensemble, the 7 Fisk Jubilee Singers; and

8 WHEREAS, Morehouse College, a men's institution founded 9 in 1867, which includes Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. among its 10 alumni, and Spelman College, a women's institution founded in 11 1881, which includes Marian Wright Edelman among its alumnae, 12 are both HBCUs located in Atlanta, Georgia; and

13 WHEREAS, All of the HBCUs referenced above, as well as the 14 nearly 100 other HBCUs, are of more than simply historic interest; 15 they are vibrant centers of contemporary scholarship that would 16 be attractive places for students and faculty of the University of 17 California to visit and do important academic work; and

18 WHEREAS, A student exchange program, or other form of 19 academic partnership, between a campus or campuses of the 20 University of California and one or more of the institutions 21 comprising the Historically Black Colleges and Universities could 22 be very beneficial to all of the students and faculty members who 23 choose to participate; and

24 WHEREAS, A partnership exists between Harvard Law School
25 and the University of California, Berkeley, Boalt Hall School of 26 Law, in which law students of the University of California attend
27 Harvard Law School for one of three years, and between Columbia
28 Business School and the University of California, Berkeley, Haas
29 School of Business, which jointly administer the 30 Berkeley-Columbia Executive MBA Program; now, therefore, be 31 it

32 Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate
33 thereof concurring, That the Legislature strongly urges the Regents
34 of the University of California to establish a student exchange
35 program, or another form of academic partnership, such as a joint 36 degree program in which students spend up to two years of a
37 four-year degree program at the host campus, between one or more 38 campuses of the University of California and one or more of the 39 institutions that are classified as Historically Black Colleges and 40 Universities; and be it further

- 1 Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy
- 2 of this resolution to each member of the Regents of the University
- 3 of California and to appropriate presidents of the Historically Black
- 4 Colleges and Universities.
